

IRA Charitable Rollover

The IRA Charitable Rollover provides you with an excellent opportunity to make a gift during your lifetime from an asset that would be subject to multiple levels of taxation if it remained in your taxable estate.

To qualify:

- › You must be age 70 ½ or older at the time of gift.
- › Transfers must be made directly from a traditional IRA account by your IRA administrator to the Van Wezel Foundation. Funds that are withdrawn by you and then contributed do NOT qualify. Gifts from 401k, 403b, SEP and other plans do not qualify.
- › Gifts must be outright. Distributions to donor-advised funds or life-income arrangements such as charitable remainder trusts and charitable gift annuities do not qualify.

Benefits—qualified charitable distributions:

- › Can total up to $100,000.
- › Are not included in your gross income for federal income tax purposes on your IRS Form 1040 (no charitable deduction is available, however).
- › Count towards your required minimum distribution for the year from your IRA.

Example

Jane wants to make a contribution to the Van Wezel Foundation. She is 72 and is required to take a minimum distribution of $20,000 from her IRA but does not need the income. She can authorize the administrator of her IRA to transfer $20,000 to the Foundation. The $20,000 distributed to the Foundation will not be subject to federal tax and will be counted toward her annual minimum required distribution.

As you plan your required minimum distributions for this year, if you do not need the money the government is requiring you to take, consider using it for a charitable gift using the IRA Charitable Rollover.

See the next page for a sample letter you can send to your plan provider to initiate a rollover. Make sure that you contact us when you direct the rollover so we can look for the check from your IRA administrator.
